My name is Kim Bruce. I am 25 years old.

I was told there would be a rock concert here tonight, with milk and cookies to follow.

Is that right, or am I been caught in a dream?

Kim. Yes I know you. From the 'other' forum.

You're a loser over there if I remember correctly?

Getting in here early so you can be one of the BIG DOGS?

The link from my email notifying of a new post didn't work when I clicked on it, it says error page not found (in the site frame).

Looks like there are a few 'kinks' in the system. All yesterday's posts seem to have disappeared into cyberspace and, not sure if this is a general thing or just that I'm lucky :), but I keep getting a script error message when entering the board or when posting or just changing screens to look at another thread
